Dear Participants,

Let me take the opportunity to congratulate you for being nominated in the 71st Foundation Training Course (FTC) scheduled to be from 11 October 2020to 08 April 2021 at Rural Development Academy (RDA), Bogura.

- 2. It's my pleasure to welcome you as a participant in the upcoming 71st FTC. Positively speaking, you will find RDA as your second home. RDA, as a cherishing ground of future leaders, offers a variety of knowledge and skill. Foundation training is an intensive and rigorous training. It will make you capable of working in stressful environment and in conflict resolution, acting smartly through effective negotiation and leading a team to get things done within minimum time. This training will also help you to develop your human norms/humanity, values/ethics/morality and overall it will make you a good human being. There will be a two-month long field attachment including 15 days Rural Development Attachment Programme on "Poverty Reduction and Rural Development". It will also be held under this training programme for gathering knowledge about administration and rural development. After successful completion of training course at RDA, you will receive the successful completion certificate of FTC.
- 3. FTC is a residential course and it is mandatory for all the participants to stay at dormitory. So you have to attend rigorous training activities throughout weekdays and weekends beyond office hours and even at night. In this training course, plenty of group works, individual assignments, written examinations, workshops and seminar paper preparation & presentation along with different committee activities will help you to manage your time very effectively at RDA. You will have to interact with team members for completing group and individual assignments and it will create new opportunity for making interaction among the participants of different cadres. Apart from these, you have to make presentation on various assignment and book review before participants and faculty members. During your stay at RDA, you have to follow strict rules and regulations. Any case of misconduct will be strictly handled and concerned participant shall be released from the training course. No alternatives will be left for you and RDA authority will immediately start disciplinary action against the participant in the case of major violation of RDA norms. Your positive attitude, mental readiness and the mentality to cope with the training load and stress is a precondition to participate in this intensive and rigorous foundation training course. However, it is advice for you not to be worried and believe that you will be able to successfully complete the training course and RDA authority will always provide necessary support to you.
- 4. I would like to provide you certain useful information related to the training course and during your stay at RDA.
