

Name : Maruf Ahmad

Designation : Assistant Director

Division : Training

Education: M.phil, Title of thesis: Role of Public Private Partnership (PPP) in Infrastructure Development: Bangladesh Experience. MSS, BSS (Hon's) in Public Administration from University of Dhaka (DU).

Specialization : Public Private Partnership, Result based management (RBM) Project Management, Local Government, Good Governance in Rural Development, TQM, Gender, Human Resource Management(HRM), Public Policy.

Cell: 01722- 522192

E-mail : ahmadmaruf.rda@gmail.com, maruf@rda.gov.bd

MARUF AHMAD is one of the Assistant Director (Faculty Member) in the Training Division of Rural Development Academy (RDA), Bogra, Bangladesh. He serves this organization since October 23, 2017. RDA is a national-level research, training & action research institute under the Ministry of Local Government, Rural Development and Cooperatives.

He obtains an M.Phil in- Role of Public-Private Partnership (PPP) in Infrastructure Development: Bangladesh Experience. Prior he obtains an MSS and BSS (Hon's) in Public Administration from the University of Dhaka. He worked project on the “Migration in Dhaka City Dwellers” in 2008. Also, he attained a workshop on Result Based Management (RBM) at; Department of Population Science (DU), in cooperation with UNFPA. He was an active member of the Tour organization “Dhaka University Tourist Society (DUTS)”. Besides he Awarded in Bronze “The Duke of Edinburgh's Award” Program, Bangladesh.

Earlier to joining RDA, He worked in renowned consultancy organization IRG Development Services (IRGDSL) as an Assistant Researcher. His major responsibilities were to conduct literature reviews, collect and analyze data, prepare materials for submission to granting agencies and foundations prepare interview questions, recruit and/or interview subjects, summarize project results, prepare progress reports, prepare other articles, reports and presentations and monitor the project budget.

He is an affiliated member of QUANTUM FOUNDATION. He has been a voluntary worker of Quantum Foundation from April 2014 to the present. He is also a member of Life Long Blood Donor (Silver Club member) of the Voluntary Blood Donation Program. Besides donating blood, he also contributes to charities and organizing programs regarding personal development to educate and inspire people about their quality of life. He is very organized and passionate about his voluntary service.

He has a keen interest in Public-Private Partnership (PPP), Project Management, Local Government, Human Resource Management (HRM), Governance in Rural Development, Total Quality Management (TQM), and Empowerment.