

Name : Dr. Muhammad Riazul Islam
Designation : Protocol Officer
Division : Agricultural Science Specialization : Livestock & Poultry
Education : Doctor of Veterinary Medicine
(DVM), Bangladesh Agricultural University, Mymensingh
MS in Microbiology, Bangladesh Agricultural University, Mymensingh.
Cell : +8801716012709
Email : riazul@rda.gov.bd, mrislam82@gmail.com

DR. MUHAMMAD RIAZUL ISLAM working as a Protocol Officer under the division of Administration at Rural Development Academy (RDA), Bogura since July 2012. He did his graduation in Doctor of Veterinary Medicine (DVM) and MS in Microbiology from Bangladesh Agricultural University, Mymensingh. From the beginning of Artificial Insemination Laboratory under Cattle Research and Development Centre (CRDC) he is engage in frozen semen processing using latest technologies and involve in the research and development of dairy and beef breed. For ensuring e-livestock health services, the author conducting a research on ICT based livestock management system. He is also the In-charge of Dairy Unit and providing services for diagnosis of livestock and poultry diseases and their treatment, breeding, feeding, nutrition, care and management. He is able to facilitate training and provide advisory services. Before joined to RDA, He is competent in commercial livestock farm design, project planning, and implementation. He worked in Food and Agriculture Organization (FAO) of United Nation as Additional Veterinary Surgeon from October, 2008 to June, 2012. He has seven published paper and some are in processing. He achieved President Rover Scout (PRS) Award and Community Development (CD) Award.